RESOLUTION VI – REPUBLIC OF AUSTRIA

THEME: POLITICAL AND SOCIAL RIGHTS

CONCERN: DEMOCRATIC CHOICE OF MIGRATION POLICIES BY SOVEREIGN NATIONS

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY,

Saluting	The defenders of the dominant cosmopolitan ideology for their apparent benevolence and pseudo-humanism, despite the intellectual dishonesty more than sufficiently demonstrated and the striking hypocrisy they show,
Understanding	The legitimate and numerous concerns of the nations living in territories subject to massive immigration, which is imposed by political and economic elites who use it shamelessly for deeply immoral personal interests,
Recalling	That the rejection of the current migratory model constitutes above all the rejection of an unpleasant mass phenomenon and not a demonstration of hatred or contempt towards the people resulting from immigration themselves and that fleeing from an economic, political or conflict situation does not solve it in any way,
Observing	That the Western governments of genuine right (fallaciously called far right by their detractors) have put in place policies that have been largely beneficial to their people and whose application has in no way confirmed the fascist danger heralded by the mainstream ideology for decades,
Shocked	By the idea that one may not see a threat to sovereignty, to the right of peoples to dispose of themselves and to democracy in the idea of confiscating the right of nations around the world to choose who crosses the legitimate borders of their territories,
Decides	To establish as a necessary and inherent condition of a democratic system that the peoples themselves choose the rates, laws and conditions relating to immigration by direct voting and referendum;

- To encourage as soon as possible, through the opening of a new UN institution, dialogue between nations to organize the remigration of foreigners rejected for clandestinity or poor social or cultural integration.
