

RESOLUTION XV – REPUBLIC OF KAZAKHSTAN

THEME : POLITICAL AND SOCIAL RIGHTS

CONCERN : PERSONAL SECURITY THROUGH ACCESS TO FIREARMS FOR DEFENSIVE

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY,

- Noting that individual security is not guaranteed in many countries,
- Recalling the scope of the #MeToo movement on social networks, a symbol of the insecurity of women in both public and private spaces,
- Concerned about Europe's supranational directives on limiting access to firearms,
- Stressing that in Switzerland, as in other countries of the world, the possession of weapons is not not a factor in mass killings or war,
- Convinced that disarming the population only benefits drug traffickers or terrorists,
- Attached to Article 3 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights which clearly states that & quot "Everyone has the right to life, liberty and security of person" this is in no way contrary to defending one's life, buying a way to to protect themselves and be able to protect themselves,
- Decides to encourage UN Member States to liberalize the firearms market as well as to relax legislation that would prevent access to this market ;
- recommend better protection for each individual in particular the most vulnerable diplomats who represent the cement of international cooperation ;
 - to study the evolution of crime throughout the world at the time of the adoption of this resolution and to report to each plenary session of the General Assembly of the United Nations, a detailed report on the effectiveness of these recommendations and this as early as the next General Assembly.

The French text is binding.